22) making a decision on filing an application for the delisting of the Company's shares and/or the Company's equity securities convertible into its shares;

23) acquisition by the Company of the shares placed in the cases set out in the Federal Law “On Joint-Stock Companies”;

24) solution of other issues envisaged by the Federal Law “On Joint Stock Companies”.

10.3. Matters assigned to the responsibility of the General Meeting of Shareholders may not be delegated to the Board of Directors or the General Director of the Company, unless otherwise stipulated by the Federal Law “On Joint Stock Companies”.

The General Meeting of Shareholders shall not be entitled to consider and take decisions on the items which are not referred to its competence by the Federal Law “On Joint Stock Companies”.

10.4. The decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders on the item put to the vote shall be taken by a majority vote of shareholders – owners of the Company’s voting shares, who participate in the meeting, unless otherwise specified in the Federal Law “On Joint Stock Companies”. A single (independent) decision only can be made in respect of each issue put to a vote.

10.5. The decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be taken by a majority vote equal to three-fourths of votes of shareholders – owners of the Company’s voting shares, who participate in the meeting, on the following items:

- amending of the Articles of Association and approval of the restated Articles of Association;

- acquisition by the Company of the shares placed in the cases set out in the Federal Law

“On Joint-Stock Companies”;

- in other cases, as set out in the Federal Law “On Joint-Stock Companies”.

Decisions to consent to or to the subsequent approval of an interested party transaction pursuant to Article 83 of the Federal Law “On Joint Stock Companies” shall be made by the General Meeting of Shareholders of the Company by a majority vote of shareholders – owners of voting shares participating in the meeting and not being parties interested in the transaction or controlled by persons interested in the transaction.

The General Meeting of Shareholders, when making a decision on consent to or subsequent approval of an interested party transaction, shall be considered valid regardless of the number of shareholders who do not have any interest in such transaction – shareholders holding voting shares and participating in the meeting.

10.6. Decisions on the items specified in Sub-Causes 2, 5, 7, 8, 12–20, 23 of Clause 10.2. of Article 10 hereof, and also about reduction of the Company’s authorized capital by way of reduction of the par value of shares and on establishment of the date as whereof the persons having the right to receive dividend are determined shall be taken by the General Meeting of Shareholders only under the proposal of the Company’s Board of Directors.

10.7. The Company’s General Meeting of Shareholders shall not be entitled to make a decision on the items which are not included in the agenda of the Company’s General Meeting of Shareholders, as well as to change the agenda.

The decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders taken in respect of the items, which are not included into the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders (excepting the event when all of the Company’s shareholders took part in it), or in violation of the competence of the General Meeting of Shareholders, in the event of absence of quorum for carrying out the General Meeting of Shareholders or without the shareholders’ majority vote required to take the decision, shall not be effective irrespective of filing an appeal through judicial procedures.

10.8. Voting at the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be carried out under the principle “one voting share – one vote”, except for the cumulative voting on the item of election of members of the Company’s Board of Directors.

At cumulative voting, the number of the votes belonging to each shareholder shall be multiplied by the number of persons who should be elected to the Company’s Board of Directors, and the shareholder shall be entitled to give votes received in this way completely for one candidate or to distribute them between two and more candidates.

The members of the Company’s Board of Directors are recognized to be elected if they received the greatest number of votes.

10.9. The Company’s General Meeting of Shareholders may be held in the place of the Company’s seat or in Moscow.

The specific address for carrying out the Company’s General Meeting of Shareholders shall be determined by the Board of Directors at solution of issues related to carrying out of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

10.10. Functions of the person presiding over the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be exercised by the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

In case of absence of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the functions of the person presiding over the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be exercised by the Deputy Chairman of the Board of Directors.

In case of absence of the Chairman of the Board of Directors and his/her Deputy, the functions of the person presiding over the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be exercised by any member of the Board of Directors under the decision of the Company’s Board of Directors or under the decision of members of the Board of Directors who attend the General Meeting of Shareholders.

If the persons who preside over the Company's General Meeting of Shareholders according to this clause are absent at the extraordinary general meeting held under the decision of the persons entitled to demand carrying out of the Company's extraordinary general meeting, the Chairman of the Company's General Meeting of Shareholders shall be the person who made a decision on carrying out of the Company's extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders (his/her representative), or if the decision on carrying out the Company's extraordinary general meeting shareholders is taken by several persons – one of these persons defined by their decision.

10.11. Should all voting shares in the Company be owned by a sole Shareholder, decisions on issues falling within the competence of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be made by such shareholder (the shareholders' authorized management body) alone, executed in writing and communicate to the Company. In such case, those provisions of Articles 10-15 of the Articles of Association which describe procedures and periods for the preparation, convening, and holding of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall not be applicable, with the exception of those prescribing the period for holding an annual General Meeting of Shareholders.

10.12. The functions of the Ballot Committee at the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be exercised by the professional participant of the securities market which keeps the register of the Company's shareholders (the Company's registrar).

Article 11. Holding of the Company's General Meeting of Shareholders in the Form of Joint Presence

11.1. The Annual General Meeting of Shareholders of the Company is held no earlier than two months and no later than six months after the end of the reporting year.

The annual General Meeting of Shareholders shall obligatorily decide on the election of members of the Board of Directors, Auditing Commission, approval of the Company's Auditor, approval of the Company's annual report, annual accounting (financial) reporting, as well as distribution of profits (including payment (declaration), with the exception of the payment (declaration) of dividends based on the results of the first quarter, six months, nine months of the reporting year) and losses of the Company based on the results of the reporting year, and other matters falling within the competence of the General Meeting of Shareholders.
